MARRIAGES.

—Miss Mollie Gifford, of this city, is engaged to be married to J. Stanley Brown, her father's private secretary.

—Wm. H. Hall, of Hazlett, Ky., was married July 5 to Miss Emma Albert, of that place. The groom formerly lived near and has many friends and relatives and hearty congratulations.

—The following description of the marriage will interest the friends of the young lady in this section where she is so much beloved. It is from a Kansas City paper just received. Miss Lettie Lee Bonester and Mr. James E. Giddings, of Independence, were married at the residence of the bride's parents, Colonel and Mrs. T. H. Bonester, last Thursday at 9 a. m., by Rev. J. M. Lowry. The front hall and apartments of the residence were prettily decorated with ferns, palms and blooming plants. Baskets of flowers hung pendant and vases of cut flowers were everywhere distributed. The bride party entered by a side entrance into the second parlor, the attendants, Miss Lettie Giddings and Mr. D. P. Bryant, of Independence, Miss Harriette Camp, of Georgia, and Mr. Wallace Giddings, of Georgia, passed by couples through an arch of evergreens and under a floral umbrella with cover of white and blue, and lining of white lace. Then came the bride and groom, the bride wearing a white dress and veil, and the groom in a dark suit, wearing a white bow tie and a white pocket square. They were followed by the bridesmaids and groomsmen, and the wedding party. The ceremony was simple and beautiful. The bride and groom were then seated at a table covered with a white cloth, and the wedding breakfast was served. The guests then retired to the parlors, and the bride and groom were left alone. The bride and groom were then seated at a table covered with a white cloth, and the wedding breakfast was served. The guests then retired to the parlors, and the bride and groom were left alone.

A few evenings since Princeton witnessed a novel scene that was quite amusing. The engaging parties were Charles Lander, a young merchant, and Miss Mary Tyler, a beautiful brunette, the daughter of Mr. J. Tyler. Both are society people and stand high in the community. Mr. Lander made an engagement with Miss Tyler to take her out riding, at the same time making a wager that she would be afraid to ride the animal through the town. The wager was accepted. At the appointed hour he made his appearance in front of her father's residence, wearing an old stove pipe hat, ragged duster, long buck gloves, seated on an old donkey, with bare back and rope reins and leading a poor, old, broken down mule. Miss Tyler was expecting a dandy horse, but was not to be outwitted; in a few minutes under her appearance in an old, faded dress, and a hat that must have been ferried across in the ark. The picturesque couple, without a smile on their faces, rode through the principal streets amid the laughing and shouting people. Never in the history of the town has a scene created so much merriment.

People who criticize Governor McCleary's course in replying to Bradley on Monday are ungenerous. McCleary was present at the speaking, as many other citizens, and it was only after a terrible onslaught on the democratic party and its record in the State—of which record McCleary's administration as Governor was a part—that he made a reply. What else could he have done but defend himself and his party, particularly when the democrats of the county demanded that he should speak, and in fact forced him to the stand? It was his duty, and he discharged it nobly. He did not seek a controversy, but being in it, he defended himself as he saw fit. He is a man of high character and a true patriot.

The democratic party of Kentucky is as active as a bee in education. Yet it pays to the schools annually 22 per cent of its revenue. In 1886 this was $1,100,000. In addition to this, as much more is raised by local taxation. The blame for illiteracy in Kentucky does not rest with the democratic party. The remedy does not lie with any party. Enough revenue has been provided to meet the people's wants. The trouble is that the people do not want more. A popular feeling in favor of education can not be made to permeate every family, no matter how much we might legislate. The cultivation of a love of knowledge cannot be forced, though it can be encouraged. The remedy for illiteracy in Kentucky lies in a gradual awakening of the people to a sense of shame for their present condition and to an appreciation of the immeasurable power that follows in the wake of the school master. —[Owensboro Messenger.]

The deadly car stove is to be banished by law from the railroads of New York State. The Governor signed the bill one day last week, but the act does not take effect until next May. The law imposes a fine of $1,000 on any railroad company whose line exceeds 50 miles in length, which shall heat its passenger cars on other than mixed trains by any stove or furnace kept inside the car, and a further penalty of $100 a day for each day such violation of the law shall continue.

HUSTONVILLE, LINCOLN COUNTY.

—The members of the Fair Association, having conferred on the question, have decided not to have an exhibition on their grounds here this year. Stanford therefore has a clear field and her enterprise will be cordially backed by the people of the West End.

—The bicycle squad who are on the march to astonish Canada reached Louisville Friday evening and left on Saturday morning on their adventurous pilgrimage. They probably gained a recruit in the city, as there were here in line when they left. The enterprise is solely for glory, but it is somewhat of the adventure of Sam Patch, who went over the Falls in order to astonish the natives, but didn't get back in time to be congratulated.

—Circumstances beyond my control necessitate my postponing the Teachers' Institute until the 20th inst., just one week later than was intended. Teachers and teachers will please note this and act accordingly. All who hold certificates are required to attend, whether actively engaged or not. The time will be placed to the credit of those who attend before their schools open. The pay this year will be computed at $1.00 per hour.

—Do not permit the ill-natured snarling of the Common Journal to lead you to believe that the meeting of the State Teachers' Association was a failure. I entertain a high opinion of the wisdom and patriotism of that paper, but do not by any means regard it as infallible. Its kind and patrioticizing to all who faithfully walk by its dictation, but who to him, or her, who ventures to utter an opinion at variance with its ex-cathedra deliverances. It is generally esteemed an honorable and courteous adversary, but was so ungenerous a few days since as to ridicule and belittle a woman, who dared to hold an opinion adverse to the dictum issued from the high Olympus of this Jupiter-tonans.

If the Prohibition people would turn their attention to high license and proper guards against selling liquor to minors, and confirmed inebriates—they would probably be able to accomplish a good work. Take the Dow Law of Ohio—it cannot be improved upon. —[Louisville Republican]

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—Some thief entered the house of Jell Johnson, just out of town, while the family were away, and stole $300, which had been hid away under a pillow. It is supposed the thief went down the chimney and it is thought he ought to be hung.

—This is the day (Monday) set apart for the speaking, but no letter goes before the hour arrives. Gen. Hardin is here and will "wake the echoes" and do the democratic song proud, while Morrow and Evans are expected to try to console the republicans; but there can be little consolation, for the damned (politically) "Little Man" will not be here and but for the unimpaired ability of Gen. Hardin as a stump, many of our people would feel disappointed. As it is all enthusiasm among the democrats and confusion among the republicans.

—William Lipp, of Holt county, Missouri, is visiting far old haunts here, after an absence of 32 years. He is accompanied by his wife, son and daughter. Special Pension Examiner W. L. Brock and wife, of Richmond, Ky., are at the Riley. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moore, and his mother, of Knoxville, Tennessee, are with Mr. Charles H. Moore, Pittsburg, and Judge W. P. Baker, of this place. Alex. W. Francis, formerly agent and operator at this place, was with Sunday. J. D. Smith and family have returned from New York, where they have been "summering." Mr. R. G. Ward, Paint Lick, has joined his wife here and is with the family of his father-in-law, Mr. Jacob Hackney. Mr. and Mrs. John Myce and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thompson, East Bernstadt, were here Sunday.

—Rev. W. B. Ragan, of this place, and Rev. Mr. Martin, Louisville, who were appointed by the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, to distribute $2,000 among the mountain counties for the purpose of building churches, have just returned from a trip through Bell, Harlan, Letcher, Perry, Leslie and other counties. Their report that owing to the extreme drought in this section last year many of the poorer families are actually destitute of bread and are suffering. This state of affairs should not be allowed to remain unchanged, and it is to be hoped all Christians and good people generally will go to the relief of those unfortunate with temporal as well as spiritual food.

—Considerable war like demonstrations were seen at East Bernstadt on Saturday morning. Three parties from Clay county named Corbett, Crawford and Powell took possession of the depot platform, which they with rare genius and enterprise converted into a "open" saloon, from which they retailed large quantities of "red eye." Not content with this bold defiance of law and order, they filled up with the juice themselves and brandishing weapons, defied the entire posse communis to arrest them. Sheriff J. H. Pearl and Constable John Howard accepted the challenge and in the name of the law demanded their surrender. This demand was answered by a simultaneous effort on the part of the three ruffians to cover the officers with pistols. In this they were foiled; the officers being too quick for them, brought two of them to bay, while the third plavily brought his revolver into a scolding position and in an instant would have been shot. Pearl and his posse, being prevented by the noise and confusion of Thomas Fair, in wrenching the pistol from the ruffian's hand. The parties were now in the hands of the law and were immediately brought on to London, where they were tried and given 10 days and $10 each with the working man's applied. A great deal of annoyance has been heaped upon the good people of East Bernstadt, Attorney and other in coming to see along the rail and by those law breakers and it is to be hoped this little episode will serve to check their depredations for awhile; in other words, that prohibition will prohibit after all the lawners are jailed.

It is a truly singular how rarely some business firms always are to advertise in a fair catalogue, hotel register, on maps, or any new device brought to their notice by strangers and at the same time ignore the very best advertising medium in the world—the local newspaper. An advertisement in a catalogue among hundreds of others, is seen hastily but once or twice, and while it may be useful to that extent, is nothing compared to the columns of your home paper, which is read 104 times a year, is carefully read by the entire community and reaches a far greater audience than any other device can do. —[Ex.]

Drunkennes or the Liqueur Habit Positively Cured by administering Dr. Haines' Golden Specific.

It can be given in a cup of coffee or tea without the knowledge of the person taking it; is absolutely harmless and will effect a permanent and speedy cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker, or an alcoholic wreck. Thousands of drunkards have been made temperate men who have taken Golden Specific in their coffee without their knowledge, and to-day believe they quit drinking of their own free will. IT NEVER FAILS. The system once impregnated with the Specific it becomes an utter impossibility for the liquor appetite to exist. For full particulars, address GOLDEN SPECIFIC CO., 185 Race st., Cincinnati, O.

W. P. WALTON.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

F. R. GOVERNOR—SIMON BOLIVAR BUCKNER, of Hart County.
 LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR—JAMES W. BRYAN, of Nelson county.
 ATTORNEY GENERAL—P. W. HARDIN, of Mercer county.
 AUDITOR—FAYETTE HEWITT, of Hardin county.
 TREASURER—JAMES W. TATE, of Woodford county.
 SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—JOSEPH DESHA PICKETT, of Fayette county.
 REGISTER OF THE LAND OFFICE—THOMAS H. CORBETT, of McCracken county.
 LEGISLATURE—DR. J. D. PETTUS, Lincoln county.

THE President has withdrawn his acceptance of the invitation to attend the meeting of the Grand Army of the Republic at St. Louis in September and in a dignified and patriotic letter states his reasons therefor. Warned by the ravings of such cattle as Tuttle, Fairchild and others of like ilk, he does not propose to place himself in a position to be insulted by fools and fanatics, because he owes it to the people to protect the honor and dignity of the government represented in his person. The letter is so manly in tone and straightforward in expression that it has completely turned the tables on the Grand Army asses, who have brayed so incessantly at him since he vetoed the pauper pensioners, and made him more solid with the masses than ever. The sutlers, the coffee-coolers, the bounty-jumpers and the deserters, who have snaked their way into an organization which ought to command the respect of the country, will find that it is not ready to be turned over to them as a simple machine for the collection of taxes to pay pensions to men who do not deserve them, and that the grand old men in the White House cannot be away from his honesty of purpose by threatening blather and anxious rascals upon the public treasury.

THERE is one grand army post at least that is not disposed to make an ass of itself, the General Landers, of Lynn, Mass. Returning from a visit to the Virginia battle field called on the President in a body and he received them in the elegant East Room of the White House. On assembling the commander of the post, General Walker, proposed "three cheers for Grover Cleveland, president of the United States" and the lusty voices sent up a shout that shook the grand old building. The president then shook hands with each member saying that the visit was peculiarly gratifying to him, that he respected and loved the brave men who bared their bosoms in defense of their country in the hour of its need and that the insane ravings of a few cranks in the organization of the Grand Army of the Republic could not and would not effect his feelings of admiration for the thousands of others who are as magnanimous in peace as they were brave in war. The meeting was thoroughly enjoyed by both the ex-soldiers and the president and they left him with higher feelings of respect for the head of the government than they had ever experienced.

THE republican papers are reproducing a proclamation issued by President Jefferson Davis in December 1862, which declares Benjamin F. Butler, a felon deserving capital punishment, to be treated as a public enemy of the Confederate States and ordering the officer in command in event of his capture to cause him to be immediately executed by hanging. His commissioned officers were also to be considered robbers and criminals and to be reserved for execution whenever captured. We don't know so much about the latter part of the order, but we believe the country generally will regret that so far as the Old Beast is concerned, he had not been captured and dealt with as the proclamation directs.

LESS than three weeks remain till the election between which time and now some good local work of organization must be effected. Barbecues and such blow outs are good enough in their places, but the real work must be done by local committees. We suggest to the chairman of this and other counties to call meetings at once and appoint speakers and workers who can be depended on to pull off their coats and see that the full vote is brought out. If Buckner's majority is one less than Knott's was Bradley will claim it as a victory.

A DISPATCH states that there is talk in Washington of a move to have all the democratic soldiers withdrawn from the Grand Army of the Republic, which has become nothing less than an auxiliary of the republican party. After the recent partisan action of the body and its despicable treatment of the bravest and best man who has held the office of President of the United States since Jackson, it is hard to see how any self respecting democrat can remain in it.

THE Register is disposed to be severe on our friend, Billy Bradley. It says that since he became a renegade from the democratic party he seems to have made it a study never to tell the truth when a lie will answer the purpose, and that he made a perfect ass of himself during his exhibition in Richmond.

THE city council of Nicholasville are a narrow-minded, hide-bound set. They refuse to allow Editor Kerr to put an engine in his printing office for fear it might burst and set the town afire again, and the editor very wisely decides to leave the poky old place.

DR. E. D. STANDFORD, the public spirited millionaire, has presented the city of Louisville with 10 acres of land lying just outside of its eastern limits and admirably adapted for park purposes. We do not know how long he has contemplated making the gift, but are sure that the happy feelings produced by the possession of a beautiful young wife hastened its bestowal.

THE school per capita for 1887-S shows an increase of 25 cents over the former figure, being $1.90. Considering the large increase in the number of children, this is very gratifying, but will no doubt sit badly on the inwards of Mr. O'Bradley.

A WOMAN in Philadelphia has been indicted for eavesdropping, and retailing the scandalous information she received thereby. It is a pity the crime is not included in the list of capital offenses.

NOTES OF CURRENT EVENTS.

—The books show 25 235 voters registered in Louisville.

—Henry Watterson has gone to Block Island for the summer, owing to ill health.

—Henry Morgan, a Knoxville drummer, was murdered in Harlan county by a man named Martin.

—The Cynthia barbecue was attended by 6,000 people and there was the utmost enthusiasm and good order.

—At Somerset an oil and gas company has been organized with a $250,000 capital. Operations will begin at once.

—W. T. Jones, democratic nominee for representative from Jessamine county, has withdrawn from the ticket in the interest of party harmony.

—The experimental test farm of the National Agricultural Department, in South Carolina, has been abandoned, having proven a complete failure.

—Nine workmen employed, on a new railroad in Chester county, South Carolina, were blown to pieces by a premature discharge of blasting powder.

—Abe Johnson, the negro who killed William Grudgell two months ago at Lawrenceburg, was arrested at Nicholasville. The governor had offered $150 reward for him.

—A young man named Gammon, who had circulated some bad reports about the daughter of William Brooks, was shot and killed by the latter, near Dixon's Springs, Tenn.

—Mr. John D. Van Gordon, living at Dingman's Ferry, Pike county, Virginia, was stung on the wrist by a bee and died from the effects of the injury a few minutes afterward.

—One thousand Hungarian strikers, armed to the teeth, are camping on one of the hillsides of Pennsylvania, threatening to annihilate all who take their places at the valley below.

—A mob took a negro from jail at Petersburg, Virginia, took him to the scene of his rape and had placed a rope around his neck, when the sheriff arrived with a posse and rescued him.

—Adam Freeman, colored, who died in the Alabama penitentiary, confessed just before death that he set fire to a house on Sand Mountain, in August, 1881, for which three men were hanged.

—William Holman, who was to have been hanged at Dalton, Ga., Friday, was given a life sentence by Gordon and ordered to the Rising Fawn coal mines. In Dalton the Governor was burned in effigy.

—Hon. Frank Wolford has been invited to reply to Hon. Frank Finley here on the 18th. As Wolford observed when he was attacked by Morgan during the war, "Boys, there's going to be a fight!" (Glasgow News)

—Dr. Cullum, committed suicide in New Orleans by cutting his throat and dying while the guests were assembling to witness his marriage to a young lady of that city. He was afflicted with an incurable disease.

—When the vault of the Perry county, Indiana, treasurer's office was opened with the keys returned by the absconding treasurer, Miller, it contained only a pair of suspenders and three 2 cent stamps. Miller's defalcation amounts to $50,000.

—The Superintendent of Public Instruction announces that the common school per capita for the next year will be $1.90. The census shows 549,592 white children of the school age, an increase of 10,637, and 107,144 colored children, an increase of 4,390.

—Oscar J. Harvey, of Pennsylvania, chief of the Law Division of the Second Controller's office, is under arrest for forgery. He forged 200 horse claims for $200 each, and is known to have collected $9,200, which amount represents not one quarter of the claims forged.

—If the political soldiers keep the President away from the encampment very many veterans of both political parties will sever their connection with an order which will then have been shown to be political in its character and management.—(Gaz. Drake, U. S. Grant Post 93, G. A. R.)

—The Missouri Supreme Court, in the case of Brooks, alias Maxwell, condemned for the murder of C. Arthur Preller, overruled the motion for a rehearing. A rehearing was granted the defendant until August 26. The defense will take an appeal to the United States Supreme Court.

—Samuel Scott, working in his father's field near Gunter'sville, Ala., went to a spring and lay down to drink. While drinking a rattlesnake that was coiled there struck him in the face and clung there until the boy tore it away and stamped it to death. Then he ran home and died in 8 hours in spite of all effort to save his life.

—Four thousand bushels of blue-grass seed sold in Bourbon at 50 cents.

—Eight Italians were victims of the mine disaster at Sturgeon River, Mich.

—Yellow fever record at Key West—Fatal cases, 83; death, 27; sick at present, 33; discharged cured, 23.

—A number of business houses in St. Louis have withdrawn their subscriptions to the Grand Army fund since by its pusillanimous action the President has been forced to withdraw his acceptance of the invitation to attend.

—Another attempt was made to shoot J. B. Spears, foreman of the Jessamine Journal office. This is the third time he has escaped a bullet within two years. The shot fired Friday at him by an unknown hand played close to a lock of his hair.

—At Tarboro, North Carolina, Austin Hart, a negro, was recently lynched for a brutal assault on a young white woman. The negroes of the neighborhood say there was insufficient evidence against Hart, and threaten to get even by lynching the young lady on whom the assault was committed.

—Seventeen variety performers were burned to death in the Alcazar Theatre, at Harley, Wisconsin, Saturday night. The actors were hummed in by the flames, which spread rapidly, and only two of the company got out alive. The fire extended to other buildings and half the town was destroyed. The property loss is placed at $500,000.

DANVILLE, BOYLE COUNTY.

—Dr. B. M. Parmer, the eminent Presbyterian divine of New Orleans, preached at the First Presbyterian church Sunday.

—The much needed rains continue to fall in Boyle county in spots. On Monday and Tuesday of last week there were heavy rains in some places, while in others there was none at all.

—About 160 colored people came from Louisville Sunday to hear Rev. Isaac Slaughter, of the Colored Baptist Church, preach. Rev. Slaughter's text was from the 1st chapter of Luke and his sermon a very able one. The Louisville people went home on the midnight train.

—John Oasley, a crippled colored boy fell in with some colored excursionists from Louisville Sunday and succeeded in getting so drunk that he became a little noisy in the vicinity of the depot. He was arrested this morning by Deputy Sheriff Bailey and fined $5 by County Judge Lee.

—Mrs. James S. Christman went to Harrodsburg last Sunday to visit her sister, Mrs. Roberts. Several days ago her little twin girls, Katie and Mattie, were taken violently ill with diphtheria. At 8:30 o'clock this (Monday) morning Mr. Christman dispatched to his uncle, Mr. W. W. Tomkins: "Katie died last night; Mattie almost gone."

—The banquet given Thursday night by Utopia Lodge, Knights of Pythias, to Grand Chancellor Rudy was a very pleasant affair. In the first place, Thorell, the host of the Clemens House, prepared a supper that would have tickled the palate of old Epicurus himself and after that Mr. Logan McKee welcomed the guests in an appropriate speech; Chancellor Rudy replied and then Messrs. J. H. Leitch, W. B. Nichols and A. E. Gibbons responded to toasts. Altogether the evening was agreeably spent and it was a big occasion for the flourishing order by whom the entertainment was given.

—Capt. D. A. Murphy, who now edits and publishes the Finley, Ohio, Tribune, is in town and reports all sorts of business enterprises flourishing in that city. There has been an increase of 3,000 in the population since he went there a few months ago. Capt. W. E. Grubbs is in town this morning. He is engaged in superintending the erection of a $25,000 hotel at Nicholasville, instead of one to cost $1,500 as a mistaken newspaper person telegraphed from Nicholasville to the Courier Journal.

—Dr. C. B. H. Martin of the 21 Presbyterian church is spending a month's vacation with friends in Indiana. Deputy U. S. Marshal W. O. Owsley, of Lancaster, was in town to day on business. Mr. Owsley makes an efficient officer and is popular with all classes because of the gentlemanly manner in which he discharges his duties.

—Prior to last spring Abe Singleton had been keeping company with Georgianne Hoskins. At that time Abe went to Somerset, having obtained employment there. Georgianne remained here, but visited Abe occasionally and wrote him affectionate letters in which she addressed him as "My dear husband," and signed herself "Your loving wife, Georgianne Singleton." She was not exactly Abe's wife, but she subscribed herself that way anyhow. During the last week in June Abe came from Somerset in response to one of Georgianne's invitations, but when he arrived here he found her sadly changed and enjoying the society of another fellow. Abe remonstrated and reminded her of the presents he had given her, when she took from a trunk a hat, a dress, a skirt and other articles of clothing, threw them at Abe and told him never to come near her again. Abe took her at her word, but when he had departed with the goods she tried to take them from him.

—Abe left them with Pete Mitchell and told him to give them back to Georgianne next day, but that female still on the war path had Abe arrested at Somerset for robbery and brought back for trial. Judge Young tried the case on Saturday and promptly acquitted the defendant.

—One of our lawyers being asked a few days since what a contingent fee was, said: "If I bring a suit for you and lose the case I get nothing; if I win the suit you get nothing!"—(Hudson Republican.)

With microbes in the drinking water typhoid in ice cream, malaria in water-melons, Bright's disease in beer and paralysis in iced tea, where will any thirsty soul refresh itself in summer time?

BARNARD COUNTY DEPARTMENT.

Lancaster.

—Yesterday was quarterly court in Lancaster.

—Wheat is still dull at 65 cents. Very few farmers are selling. Most of it is stacked.

—The Citizens National bank declared no July dividend, but carried the earnings of the past six months to the surplus fund increasing it to $8,000.

—Robert and Hiram Collier, two of our prominent farmers, made an assignment Saturday, the former to W. H. Kinnaird, the latter to J. C. Thompson. I do not know the assets or liabilities.

—Cyprian rains have fallen since my last report and if we don't have a good corn crop there's nothing in the oil adage, "A dry June for a good corn crop, &c."

—C. Terrell sold to Mr. Carothers, of Lexington, two mules for $225, one of them an aged mule. He also sold to E. H. Walker 4 head of cattle for $135.

—A mortgage on the roadbed and roll back stock of the K. C. railroad for $7,000, 000 to the Metropolitan Trust Co., N. Y., was recorded in our county clerk's office last week.

—Much regret is felt by our citizens that the Hon. Henry Watterson will not be able to attend the barbecue. There isn't a more popular man in the State, with Garrard county democrats, than Mr. Watterson and everybody was anxious to see him. We all hope he may soon be well again.

—Contrary to our expectations there has been no rush on the part of our customers to pay their accounts, which were due July 1st. This is not as it should be. We sell goods at just the same prices as the cash stores and in common justice we are entitled to our money when it is due. This is intended for you if you owe us anything and we hope you will so consider it. Rept. G. D. Burdett & Co.

—Joshua Bardett, an employee at Miller's Hotel, left Sunday for Louisville, where he goes as a delegate to the Grand Lodge of O. H. Fellows. Mr. Jo Hensel, new of our citizens, has removed to Danville to live. He has rented his store room and residence to a Richmond man who will run a hickory and confectionery here. Willie Watson, of Atlanta, is on a visit to his mother, Mrs. Judge Pherrigo of this city.

—Mr. John Brewer has returned from a six weeks business trip. Edward Ashby and Max Scott left yesterday for Kansas City, where the former has a position as telegraph operator. Mrs. R. R. West and children, of Washington City, are visiting John E. West, Esq. W. O. Sweeney and father have returned from Cincinnati. C. L. Brown, the jovial Genl. Freight Agent of the K. C., has been up to see Superintendent Butts. Miss Mattie Smith has returned from the Boston Conservatory of Music, a graduate. An elegant party was given by the Misses Marksberry on Friday evening, in honor of Miss Dodd, of Nashville, who is visiting them.

 BARBECUE NOTES.
 Now let the band begin to play.
 There will be 100 carcasses roasted.
 An ample police force will be on hand to keep order.

The big kettle for the burgo are expected to arrive to day.
 A Buckner club will be organized here as soon as the barbecue is over.

Gilcher Bros., of Danville, get the contract to furnish 2,000 pounds of bread.
 There will be two speakers stands. Everybody shall have enough speaking.

Don't forget the place of entrance, near Capt. Elkin's residence. Flags will be used to mark it.
 How many of our citizens are going to decorate their places of business? Let everybody do it.

Trains will run from Lancaster to the grounds every 30 minutes. Tickets for the round trip 15 cents.
 A notable feature of the occasion will be M. D. Hughes on horseback. He rides like one of the English Guards.

The democracy of Garrard will not forget Capt. Elkin. I nominate him for the Legislature two years hence. Who'll second the nomination?

The ladies are expected to turn out in full force. There were 3,000 of them at Cynthia. Nothing adds so much to an occasion of this kind as pretty women. Don't fail us ladies.

There is no more affiliation between temperance and politics than between religion and politics. The former is too pure, too good to become associated without self-injury. Pouring temperance, like religion, into politics is like pouring pure water into ink. It only increases the quantity of the latter, and the bright, sparkling, ennobling qualities of the former are totally destroyed. Politics, by a union, can be of no assistance to the temperance cause. Temperance must secure her supporters, her friends, from among the members of the different parties without asking that they alienate themselves from their party and she must conform her mode of operations so that they may consistently assist her.—(Grayson Gazette.)

An English fashion in hair cutting is being taken up by the anxious young men, though there are only a few barbers in New York who can do it properly. It is to have the hair singed. It is first cut as usual, but not very close. Then a long taper is lighted, a comb is rapidly run over the head with the taper above it until the end of each hair has been touched by the flames. Not more than one-sixteenth of an inch of any hair is burned when the work is done by the skillful operator. Singeing is supposed to prevent baldness and to give the hair a natty appearance. In England the singeing costs extra and the barbers here are doubtful whether to rank it as an extra hair cut or a shampoo.—[New York Sun.]

Versailles Saturday by the sudden death of her infant son, whom she left well a wife up Saturday to visit Mrs. A. M. Penland and remained with her till yesterday ibly if he must.

—The Louisville Times attempted to give a picture of Mrs. S. F. H. Tarrant, who attended the State Teachers' meeting, but it failed to do that handsome lady justice.
In fact the cut would pass for any person as well as for Mrs. T.

—Miss Mary Withers Bowman entertained at tea Friday night, Misses Mae Adams, Annie and Ella Shanks, Lucy Tate and Randa Portman and Messrs. J. S.
Hocker, P. M. McRoberts, W. M. Bright, Manterson Peyton and J. B. Paxton. The supper was delightful and all report a jolly good time.

Railroad to the Metropolitan Trust Company, of New York, for $7,000,000 4 per cent.
gold bonds issued by the railroad company.
The whole line of the railroad and its privileges, rolling stock, etc., is covered by livering it to the clerks all along the line.

Officers will be elected on the 16th and it will be in operation by October 1.

FIFTEEN to twenty dollars paid for old machines in exchange for new ones on monthly payments. P. Hampton.

In the correspondent at Crab Orchard had signed his name to his letter we might have given it space, but we can't put the word of an anonymous scribbler against the combined testimony of a dozen good men.

As we predicted the INTERIOR JOURNAL did the Lancaster up. It was a bad game all around, however, the score standing 36 to 26. Our namesakes will go over to Lancaster next Friday and beat the boys on their own grounds.

I have sold out my business at Junction
City and ask those indebted to me to please come forward and settle. An early settlement will save both of us trouble and expense as I will have to put my accounts in the hands of an officer if they are not paid in a short while. J. W. Vandykell.

Mrs. TARRANT will institute suit against the Interior Journal for willful and malicious libel, which consists in the statement that she is over 70 years of age, and any jury who looks upon the handsome young widow will award her any amount of damages she may claim. The best lawyers in the State will take the case on a contingent fee.

The entertainment given by the Lancaster Athletic Club came fully up to expectations. The young ladies are incredibly drilled and their evolutions were brilliant and prettily as could be. Mrs.
Barnes furnished the instrumental music in a very excellent manner, and the program was long and to the point.

Major Harry A. Evans is general manager of the club and he has reasons to be proud of his proficiency. The new program was not better personnel, considering the good cause it was for but our people are called on to aid in such matters as often they can hardly be convinced for non-attendance. The entire proceeds were less than $50.

All the preparations for the Grand Democratic Rally and Barbecue are complete and that W. S. Miller, chairman of the committee on arrangements, says he will be prepared to set a dinner for 15,000 people and give them the best barbecue besides they ever swallowed. All the advertised speakers will be on hand, save Mr. Watterson, who is ill; the State Central Committee will be there in a body; so also the Blackburn Club, of Lexington, besides prominent men from all parts of the State. It is going to be a day to be remembered and we hope every man in this section will make it a point to attend. The ladies are also especially requested to grace the occasion with their presence. Remember the day is Thursday, the 14th, and the place Capt. Tom E. Kin's woodland, just over the Garrard and Lincoln line.

IS IT TRUE? The examining trial of W. H.
Pollock, the L. & N. brakeman, charged with breaking into and robbing a car at Lebanon Junction of a box of bonds, the property of D. W. Vandover, of this place, occurred at Shepherdsville, Tuesday, and the proof of his guilt being conclusive he was held for further trial in the sum of $250, which he could not give and was returned to jail. It seems that he has been at the business for some time and from those who attended we learn that a sufficient number of cases have been developed against him to keep him in the State prison 40 years. A negro woman, who is also said to have been his mistress, acted as his agent at Lebanon Junction and sold the stolen articles. A search of her house revealed much of the result of his thefts.
Friday his home at Rowland was searched and more stolen goods found. Pollock is a native of this county and a man that might have done well but for a natural tendency to devilment.

The entertainment given by Misses Leila and Allie Marksbury, of Lancaster, in honor of their guest, Miss Katie Dodd, of Nashville, on Friday evening last, was one of the most brilliant as well as thoroughly enjoyable affairs that it has ever been the good fortune of our Business Manager to attend.
At 8:30 the large crowd was well high assembled and until 2 A. M. the handsomely decorated parlors was the scene of happiness supreme. The reception committee was composed of Miss Katie Dodd, who was attired in a decolette costume of white mull with pink trimmings; diamond; Miss Nannie Wood, blue satin, lace overdress; diamonds; and Messrs. C. C. Carson and E. C. Walton, Stanford. Misses Leila and Allie Marksbury, in costumes of cream mull, crimson satin; diamonds and cream mull, lace; diamonds, respectively, did the entertaining in the most elegant style and the guests are under lasting obligations for the unlimited attention shown them. There were a large number of ladies from the surrounding towns present, besides the full corps of Lancaster's loveliest, and youthful beauty, arrayed in finest dress, was auficient to captivate the eye and inspire the heart of the most callous beholder. The refreshments, served at 11, were in keeping with the rest of the delightful programme, and were discussed and enjoyed with a hearty relish.

We learn from Mr. H. R. Hitt that his brother Jim was worse yesterday and thought to be in a dying condition.

Stockholders in the Lincoln County Stock Association are requested to pay their subscriptions to J. H. Houghman, treasurer, immediately.

The fair booth and feed privileges, etc., will be rented in Stanford on Wednesday, July 23, up to which time bids will be received therefor.

STANFORD LODGE No. 158 I. O. O. F. requests a full attendance of the members this evening. The committee on by-laws will make their report at this meeting.

The rain though insufficient in quantity has greatly revived vegetation. Out on the farms of R. Cobb and others a waterspout occurred Saturday that did considerable damage.

The Fair is a dead cure thing now, as will be seen by the list of premiums given herewith. The directors concluded that two days would be sufficient for the first exhibition and it will consequently be held July 25th and 26th.

THIRTEEN entered the store of W. S. Hilton, at Junction City, Friday night, and took from the safe which they picked open, about $90 in cash. A lot of calico and worsted goods are missing, the exact amount not known. Sheriff Newland searched the house of one of the suspected parties, a resident of Lincoln, on Saturday night, but nothing was found to prove him the guilty one.

THREE negroes in convict clothes went to Mrs. Hull's boarding house at Rowland Friday evening and demanded supper, which was given them by the proprietress,
who was scared nearly out of her wits, knowing that there was no man in the house and fearing they would do her harm.
Instead of their fees being realized, they thanked her very kindly and departed. One of the negroes is a very large man and walks with a limp. Five convicts were seen together near Rowland a few days prior to this.

Those who have never tasted that delectable preparation known as "barbecue" have a treat in store next Thursday at the District Barbecue in Capt. E. Kin's woods.
Gus Johnson, of Lexington, the only man who knows how to make it to perfection, will be there with his two kettles, one holding 700 and the other 500 gallons, and will see that none goes away without partaking of it. He will also superintend the cooking of the rest of the big bill necessary for 15,000 people. Let everybody attend.

A SPECIAL train for the Barbecue Grounds will leave Louisville at 5 A. M. next Thursday, passing Lebanon at 7:45 o'clock, Junction City at 9 and arriving at its destination about 9:45. Returning leave the grounds at about 5 P. M. It will stop at all stations from New Haven this way and take passengers through at one fare for the round trip. The train will run between Stanford and the grounds as many times during the day as may be necessary. There will be a sufficient number of coaches attached to take all comfortably who may wish to come and enjoy the grandest thing of the kind ever attempted in Kentucky.
The Kentucky Central will also run a special train from Lexington the same day.

THE effort to establish a Building Association upon the charter granted by the last Legislature is meeting with very gratifying success, 250 shares of the 300 needed being already subscribed. We are glad to observe that many railroad men are interesting themselves in it and have taken stock.
Such institutions not only pay the stockholders handsomely but help to build up a town by aiding those who wish to provide houses, for themselves, cheaply and easily.
Those wishing to subscribe can call on Capt. Frank Harris or W. H. Miller, Engr.
LATER—Every share has been subscribed and we are asked to call a meeting of the stockholders for organization at the Court House Saturday night next at 7:30.

SERIOUS CHARGE DISMISSED.—Judge Hansford and W. T. Stephenson were brought here Friday on a warrant charging them with allowing a prisoner to escape and were tried before Judge Carson, but were discharged because of the informality in which he was put in their charge.
It will be remembered that George Stephenson, charged with murder, was turned over to them at the suggestion of the court, and that they failed to turn him over to the court again at the time his trial was fixed for. Judge Varron allowed his heart to get off with his head in the matter, upon representations of sickness, insanity and perhaps death in the family of the accused, and got picked up for it. It is safe to predict, however, that he will be more particularly in the future as we learn that he feel-very badly over the way his confidence and tender heartedness were abused.

DEATHS.

—Donald, the infant son of W. D. Newland, died Sunday of cholera infantum.

—D. W. Haydock, known to his friends as "Bad," died at Harrodsburg Saturday of typhoid fever, aged 22.

—Gen. Walter C. Whittaker, a prominent Louisville lawyer, died Saturday night at his country residence, after a long lingering illness. He was 64 years old.

—CHANDLER—Eight months ago to day the pleasant task of writing the marriage notice of a bright and happy young girl to the man of her choice devolved upon us.
Now the painful duty of recording her untimely death is ours. In the Christian church, on the 10th of last November, Miss Ella Ramsey was led to the marriage altar by Mr. J. L. D. Chandler, a lovely bride.

To day in the same church he will weep over her dead body. Then all was hope and happiness, now all is darkness and despair. The merry marriage bells gave way to the solemn funeral dirge and bright eyes on the former occasion are now suffused with tears. But such is the uncertainty of life, and frequent are the warnings to the living to prepare to meet their God! The dear young girl of whom we write had made that preparation and death found her ready and willing to go to the Father. She was a lovely Christian, loved by all and especially by the church, which she was ever ready to serve and her death will cause a pang of sorrow in the breast of a legion of friends. After her marriage she went to live at Zinsville, Ohio, but falling ill of a brain trouble her husband brought her back to the parental roof where everything was done for her, alas in vain!
The dissolution came at 5:30 yesterday morning and the earthly bride became the bride of the Lamb. Today at 3 o'clock the same minister, Elder John Bell Gibson, who officiated at the marriage, will deliver the funeral discourse and the attendants on the former occasion will again pallbearers on this. Then the remains will be laid to rest in Buffalo Springs Cemetery. If sympathy avail anything, then will the burden of grief be lighted from the hearts of husband, parents, brothers and sisters in this, the hour of their sorrow, for there is not a person in Stanford to day who does not grieve with them on their irreparable loss.

RELIGIOUS.

—The letter announcing the excommunication of Father McGinn was not read in the Catholic churches of New York Sunday.

—Rev. Father Francis Dent, convicted of criminal libel on a brother priest, at Little Valley, New York, was sentenced to seven months' imprisonment in the Erie county penitentiary.

—The Baptist church has presented Rev.
P. G. Elmon with leave of absence for a month, during which time he will visit Virginia. The vacation is given to take effect after July 15th.

—Not long ago the fine $20,000 Methodist church of Jamestown, Ohio, was destroyed by a cyclone. It was rebuilt and Sunday it was struck by lightning and burned in the ground. Providence is evidently opposed to its location.

—The Lincoln county Sunday School Convention was thinly attended, but those present accomplished much good. Mr. R.
E. Barrow occupied the chair in the absence of S. E. Owsley, permanent chairman. The opening exercises were held by Eld. John Bell Gibson and the other preachers took part in the programme.

—Elder Green Lee Surber preached his farewell sermon here last Sunday and when the good byes were said to him and wife, all eyes were dimmed with tears and all hearts united in prayer for blessings to attend them. Under Elder Surber's ministry of two and a half years, 133 persons have united with the church, and he leaves it with a united and happy membership of 534. The official board gave him a letter bearing testimony to his ability, faithfulness and piety as a pastor and teacher.
His address for a few weeks will be Shelby City, Ky. (Mt. Sterling Sentinel)

—A very large crowd was present at the dedication services at Bright's Sunday. Dr.
Morton, secretary of the Church Extension Board, preached the dedicatory sermon at 11 and preached again at 3:30. Between the two services an old-fashioned basket dinner was served, excellent in quality and apparently unlimited in quantity. The church is a handsome one, built on the most modern plan, with tall spire, and is a real monument to the generosity of the people who built it. Its total cost was $2,000 and but $1,000 of the amount had been raised prior to the dedication, when $850 additional was subscribed. Dr. G. A. Traylor doubled his subscription of $100; G. R.
Bright added $100 to his and many others were almost as liberal.

So Has the Ark
 "Aha," mournfully exclaims a Boston clergy, "the old fashioned way of making love has passed away with our fathers." In behalf of the young people of this generation, we return thanks for this blessing. The old fashioned way of making love, as we understand it, must have been a dreary affair. A man began, if we catch the rat, by making love to his father in law, whom he hated, and his mother in law, whom he greatly feared. He called his sweetheart "Respected miss," and once in a while he got a chance to touch her finger tips icily in a dance as he teetered past her like a cork on stilts, for in such manner of joint, low grace and frosty merriment, children, did your grandfathers dance (pronounced dawnces.) And for all this—what Horace Greely would call "Arctic circle of frigidity"—my son, your grandfather loved your grandmother—soft and fragrant be the "old fashioned roses" that bloom above her—no better, I own, than you do the girl you feed on indigestible caramels and corn starch ice cream while you fill her ears with the most idiotic chatter that ever drove a sensible man mad. O! Out with you! Out of my sight and hearing! By Venus' glove, if ever again I hear you talk to a girl as I overheard you talk to Kitty last night, I'll brain you with something soft, if I know where to hit you. After all, may it not be that our fathers were not such half baked fools as their sons. I will read over a few of my own old love letters and see.—[Burdett in Brooklyn Eagle]

A Calf Converted Into Foot Gear Within 24 Hours.
 The celebrated Chicago sausage machine has been eclipsed. In this machine the pig, it will be recollected, is said to enter at one end and on the other a handle to emerge in sausage. The Vienna papers are making merry over a feat made by a celebrated shoemaker in that city. He undertook from a given calf to manufacture a pair of boots within 24 hours of the animal's death. The conditions were made and a committee was appointed to see that they were duly carried out. Large stakes were put into the hands of an impartial stakeholder. Early in the morning of the appointed day, a calf was killed in the presence of numerous witnesses. The skin was at the tannery at noon; it was properly tanned and turned over to one of the most skillful hands of the spirited shoemaker that very evening and next morning it reappeared in the shape of a pair of boots, which were worn by the man who owned the calf that had carried the skin the day before. So many orders have flooded in as a result of the wide publicity given to this event, which verily marks an epoch in the annals of the boot and shoe trade, that the worthy manufacturer contemplates erecting a slaughter house on the premises, together with a small cow-shed. He deserves every success.—[Pall Mall Gazette.]

 Lord McCauley pays the following beautiful tribute to his mother:
 "Children, look in those eyes; listen to that dear voice; notice the feeling of even a single touch that is bestowed upon you by that hand. Make much of it while yet you have that most precious of all good gifts, a loving mother. Read the unfeigned love of those eyes; the kind anxiety of that touch and look, however slight your pain. In after life you may have friends, but never will you have again the inexpressible love and gentleness lavished upon you which none but a mother bestows. Often do I sigh in the struggles with the hard, uncaring world for the sweet, deep security I felt when, of an evening, nestling in her bosom I listened to some quiet tale, suitable to my age, read in her untiring voice. Never can I forget her sweet glances cast upon me when I appeared asleep; never her kiss of peace at night. Years have passed away since we laid her beside my father in the old churchyard; yet still her voice whispers from the grave and her eyes watch over me, as I visit spots long since hallowed to the memory of my mother."

THE PROBLEM OF FALLING IN LOVE—It is difficult to say what it is that enchants a young man's fancy, what particular attraction, what "touch of the hand, turn of the head," because the observer is always more or less surprised that such feeble charms should effect such large results. One would say that it cannot be invariably beauty that decides, if beauty had not so many definitions as religion or love, or there would be no lovely spinster; it can not be intellect, or we should meet no insane married women; it would be always amiability, or we would see no virgins preying over households; nor social position, or there would be no megalomaniacs; nor money, or all the penniless young maidens would be left to single blessedness. A young man's fancy, to be sure, like everybody's, is much influenced by propinquity; it is the woman of whom he sees the most, with whom he is intimate enough to discover the attractions that are often overlooked by other friends, who appeals to him; but among a number with whom he is equally intimate, how does it happen that he selects one especially and finds in her all the poetry and music of his life?—[Harper's Bazar.]

The mother's love is the first and absorbing delight, blunting all other sensibilities; it is an expansion of the animal existence; it enlarges the imagined range for self to move in; but in after years it can only continue to be joy on the same terms as other long-lived love—that is, by much suppression of self, and power of living in the experience of another.—[George Eliot.]

AN ACT for taking the sense of the good people of this Commonwealth as to the necessity and expediency of calling a Convention to amend the Constitution and to provide for ascertaining the number of citizens entitled to vote for Representative within this State.

WHEREAS, Experience has pointed out the necessity of amending the Constitution and the expediency of calling a convention for that purpose; therefore,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

1. That at the next general election for Representatives to the General Assembly, it shall be the duty of the several sheriffs and other officers of election to open a poll for and make a return to the Secretary of State, for the time being, of the names of all citizens entitled to vote for Representative who are voted at the said election for calling a convention for the purpose of re-adopting, amending or changing the Constitution.

2. That any sheriff or other returning officer failing to perform the duty imposed by first section of this act shall be subject to a fine of one hundred dollars ($100), to be recovered by indictment of the grand jury in any court having jurisdiction thereof, and shall, upon conviction of such failure, be removed from office by the court in which such conviction is had.

3. That for the purpose of ascertaining the number of citizens entitled to vote for Representatives within this State in the year 1887, there shall be furnished, as hereinafter provided, to the sheriff and other officers of the election in August, 1887, a registration book, in which the names of all citizens entitled to vote for Representative within this State at the said election, the names of the citizens entitled to vote for Representative at the said election, and the names of all citizens living in the district known to said officers to be entitled to vote for Representative, or male known to them by evidence on that day, shall be registered as not voting. And in the year 1887, no other officer shall be authorized to make any list or return of the qualified voters of this Commonwealth, nor shall any return therefrom be made, except the registration book and certificates provided for by this act. And all laws requiring list or return of the qualified voters are hereby repealed, so far as the year 1887 is embraced therein. The total number of votes registered shall be the true number of citizens entitled to vote for Representative within this State, for the purpose of ascertaining whether a majority of all the citizens of this State, entitled to vote for Representative, vote for calling a convention for the purpose of re-adopting, amending or changing the Constitution.

4. The said registration books shall be appropriately ruled and headed, so that they may, and it is hereby enacted that they may, be the poll books for recording the votes for and against the calling of the constitutional convention, and for ascertaining the number of citizens entitled to vote for Representative within this State. It shall be the duty of the said officers of election to prepare to every voter the question: "Do you vote for calling a constitutional convention or not?" If such voter shall answer in the affirmative, his name shall be recorded as voting for said convention; and if such voter shall answer in the negative, his name shall be recorded as voting against said convention; and if such voter shall answer, "I do not vote," his name shall be recorded as not voting on said question. And it shall be the duty of the officers holding the election at each voting place in the State to certify the total number of voters registered, and the number voting for calling a constitutional convention, and to make out a duplicate certificate showing said facts. The registration book shall be by them immediately sent, at the expense of the Commonwealth, by mail, to the Secretary of State, at Frankfort, Kentucky, and the duplicate certificate attached to the poll-book for the election of state officers, and return therewith as now directed by law.

5. The Secretary of State in office at the convening of the General Assembly next after the election in August, 1887, shall, immediately upon the organization of same, transmit to each House a statement, prepared by him from the said registration and poll-books, showing how many voters were at the said election, cast in favor of said convention, and the total number of voters registered, whether voting for or against or not at all. The report shall be made up by counties. He shall retain the registration book for the use of examination and inspection of the next General Assembly.
